

AL ROSTAMANI GROUP HIGHLIGHTS EMIRATISATION

Dubai, UAE, 30th April 2013, The Al Rostamani Group, one of the largest conglomerates in the UAE, participated in the 2013 UAE Careers Fair in a bid to highlight to young and aspiring UAE Nationals and graduates of all backgrounds the importance of building a successful career. It also highlighted the variety of advantages and opportunities that a professional career with the Group can offer.

“At Al Rostamani Group, we remain firmly committed to the young people of the UAE by giving them the best start for their future. In addition to our relation with all institutes and universities, The UAE Careers Fair is one forum that enables us to reach out to young and talented individuals by presenting to them the unique benefits, challenges and rewards a career with us could bring to their development and future growth” said Mr. Marwan Al Rostamani, Chairman of the Group.

The group remains focused on building its Emirati staff base and to support this objective, one of the many initiatives implemented is a paid part time work program to enable young UAE Nationals to complete their studies. Students are also offered generous study leave in preparation of their exams with yearly suitable allowance for books and stationary.

Senior managers and representatives from the group’s portfolio of companies discussed with young students and graduates the variety of careers available to them within a choice of 14 companies across a diversified number of different industries including general trading, automobiles and heavy equipment, travel, foreign exchange, financial services, property development, construction and infrastructure development, telecommunications and information technology services.

Last Updated:01 May 13

Al Rostamani Group highlights Emiratisation

The Al Rostamani Group, one of the largest conglomerates in the UAE, participated in the 2013 UAE Careers Fair in a bid to highlight to young and aspiring UAE Nationals and graduates of all backgrounds the importance of building a successful career. It also highlighted the variety of advantages and opportunities that a professional career with the Group can offer.

"At Al Rostamani Group, we remain firmly committed to the young people of the UAE by giving them the best start for their future. In addition to our relation with all institutes and universities, The UAE Careers Fair is one forum that enables us to reach out to young and talented individuals by presenting to them the unique benefits, challenges and rewards a career with us could bring to their development and future growth" said Mr. Marwan Al Rostamani, Chairman of the Group.

The group remains focused on building its Emirati staff base and to support this objective, one of the many initiatives implemented is a paid part time work program to enable young UAE Nationals to complete their studies. Students are also offered generous study leave in preparation of their exams with yearly suitable allowance for books and stationary.

Senior managers and representatives from the group's portfolio of companies discussed with young students and graduates the variety of careers available to them within a choice of 14 companies across a diversified number of different industries including general trading, automobiles and heavy equipment, travel, foreign exchange, financial services, property development, construction and infrastructure development, telecommunications and information technology services.

© Press Release 2013

Company:	Al Rostamani Group
PR Contact:	Aileen Encarnacion
Posted By:	Ishraq Al Tal (press@ameinfo.com)
Published:	United Arab Emirates, 2013-05-02

Al Rostamani Group highlights Emiratisation

The Al Rostamani Group, one of the largest conglomerates in the UAE, participated in the 2013 UAE Careers Fair in a bid to highlight to young and aspiring UAE Nationals and graduates of all backgrounds the importance of building a successful career.

It also highlighted the variety of advantages and opportunities that a professional career with the Group can offer.

"At Al Rostamani Group, we remain firmly committed to the young people of the UAE by giving them the best start for their future. In addition to our relation with all institutes and universities, The UAE Careers Fair is one forum that enables us to reach out to young and talented individuals by presenting to them the unique benefits, challenges and rewards a career with us could bring to their development and future growth," said Mr. Marwan Al Rostamani, Chairman of the Group.

The group remains focused on building its Emirati staff base and to support this objective, one of the many initiatives implemented is a paid part time work programme to enable young UAE Nationals to complete their studies. Students are also offered generous study leave in preparation of their exams with yearly suitable allowance for books and stationary.

Senior managers and representatives from the group's portfolio of companies discussed with young students and graduates the variety of careers available to them within a choice of 14 companies across a diversified number of different industries including general trading, automobiles and heavy equipment, travel, foreign exchange, financial services, property development, construction and infrastructure development, telecommunications and information technology services.

Notes and Media Contacts

Media contact:

Aileen Encarnacion
Secretary to Group Chief Marketing Officer
Al Rostamani Group
Tel: +97144287654
Fax: +97144250519